

"Passport to Knighthood"

Carnival

Friday, September 22, 2017

3 - 5 pm | Woolsey Stadium | Senior Parking Lot

The King's High School graduating class of 2018 invites you and your family to attend a spirit-filled event, the "Passport to Knighthood" carnival. The carnival is after school, before the Back-to-School BBQ / Convocation and High School Football game against Cedarcrest.

- "Build-A-Knight"
- Bouncy House & Slide
- Bowling
- Climbing Wall
- Cupcake Walk
- Duck Racing
- Dunk Tank
- Face Painting
- Hair Salon
- Henna
- Jail
- Jamba Juice
- Caricature
- Petting Zoo
- Potato Sack Race
- Spirit Stores
- TP Toss
- Plus More...!

These are just some of the 30+ fun booths. Most will require tickets except the Spirit Store, Snack Shack, Italian Sodas and a few others. An average of 3 - 10 tickets will be needed per booth. A suggested guideline is at least 40 tickets per child. (Some children had 100+ tickets last year.)
