

There is no better time than the present to celebrate the Dads and Daughters of King's Schools!

This virtual celebration is a way to connect daughters with their inspirational person whether dad, grandfather, step-dad, uncle, brother, honorary father or the role model that encourages them toward faith, hope and love.

Date:

Saturday, May 2

Attire:

Dress it up!

Dads: This may mean a tux, jacket/collared shirt, ties are optional.

Daughters: This may mean formal, semi-formal, you decide how formal you want to go.

It's a good excuse for all of us to change out of our sweatpants!

Cost:

$0 per person – Special Quarantine Rate

Schedule:

6:00 p.m. Prepare dinner at home: We will provide recipes or create your own.

7:00 p.m. Dinner: Enjoy together at home or Zoom with friends over dinner. You arrange the Zoom.

7:45 p.m. Pictures! Post your pictures to Instagram or Facebook with #kingsschoolsfatherdaughter2020

8:00 p.m. Program via YouTube: Message shared by King's Class of 2019 Lauren Blair and her father Micah

8:30 p.m. Dance: Salsa? Waltz? Hip Hop? 80's Classic Rock? You decide! Figure out your own lightshow and have a blast! Post your playlist and pictures/video with #kingsschoolsfatherdaughter2020

Guest speakers Lauren Blair with her dad Micah along with High School Principal Bob Ruhlman and his daughter Kate at 2018 Father Daughter Banquet at Seattle Golf Club